AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

In asserting the following affirmative defenses to Plaintiff's claims, JPMCB does not concede that the assertion of such defenses imposes any burden of proof on JPMCB with respect thereto. Furthermore, JPMCB has not yet completed its investigation and, to the extent that investigation and/or discovery warrant, reserves the right to supplement, amend or delete any or all of the following affirmative defenses prior to any trial of this action. At the present time, JPMCB asserts that the claims alleged in the Complaint against JPMCB are barred, in whole or in part, because:

FIRST DEFENSE

The Complaint fails to state a claim against JPMCB upon which relief may be granted.

SECOND DEFENSE

Plaintiff is estopped from alleging that the security interest of JPMCB, as Administrative Agent, was terminated or, in the alternative, the Bankruptcy Court should find that the Debtors held the collateral under the Term Loan Agreement pursuant to a constructive trust.

THIRD DEFENSE

Any injury or damages to the Plaintiff should be reduced to the extent that the culpable conduct of others caused or contributed to any damages or injury that the Plaintiff may have sustained.

FOURTH DEFENSE

The claims asserted in the Complaint against JPMCB are barred by the doctrines of in pari delicto, unclean hands and/or the Wagoner Rule.

FIFTH DEFENSE

The October 2008 Amendment was filed without authority and therefore is ineffective.

SIXTH DEFENSE

The unauthorized filing of the October 2008 Amendment did not waive JPMCB's security interest in certain assets of the Debtors pursuant to the Term Loan Agreement and the Term Loan UCC Financing Statements.

SEVENTH DEFENSE

JPMCB was a secured party and had a perfected security interest on the Petition Date in certain assets of the Debtors pursuant to the Term Loan Agreement as set forth in multiple UCC-1 financing statements filed throughout the United States, including, but not limited to the UCC-1 financing statement numbered 6416822 3 and filed on November 30, 2006 with the Secretary of State of Delaware listing Saturn Corporation as the "debtor."

EIGHTH DEFENSE

At the time any of the purported transfers referenced in the Complaint were allegedly made by the Debtors, JPMCB was a perfected secured creditor thereby excepting all of the alleged transfers from avoidance as preferential transfers pursuant to Bankruptcy Code section 547(b)(5).

NINTH DEFENSE

Pursuant to Bankruptcy Code section 547(c)(2), the alleged transfers sought from JPMCB in the Complaint were (a) in payment of a debt incurred by the Debtors in the ordinary course of business or financial affairs of the Debtors and JPMCB, (b) made in the ordinary course of business or financial affairs of the Debtors and JPMCB, and (c) made according to ordinary business terms.

TENTH DEFENSE

The claims asserted in the Complaint against JPMCB are barred by the doctrine of earmarking.

ELEVENTH DEFENSE

The claims asserted in the Complaint against JPMCB are barred by the doctrines of recoupment and/or set-off.

TWELFTH DEFENSE

The claims asserted in the Complaint against JPMCB are barred to the extent that JPMCB was a mere conduit with respect to any of the alleged transfers.

THIRTEENTH DEFENSE

Pursuant to the terms of the DIP Order, to the extent JPMCB made any payments to lenders pursuant to the Term Loan Agreement, JPMCB has no responsibility or liability for such amounts paid and is exculpated for any and all such liabilities.

FOURTEENTH DEFENSE

Pursuant to the Term Loan Agreement, the Debtors agreed to hold harmless and indemnify JPMCB to the full extent of any losses, expenses, claims or proceedings related to or arising out of the Term Loan Agreement. JPMCB hereby invokes all of its contractual and common law indemnity rights, and hereby provides notice to Plaintiff and the Debtors thereof.

FIFTEENTH DEFENSE

Pursuant to the terms of the DIP Order, Debtors agreed to pay the reasonable fees, costs and charges incurred by JPMCB in defending itself against the Plaintiff's Complaint.

WHEREFORE, JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. respectfully requests that judgment be entered in its favor as follows:

- A. Dismissing with prejudice Plaintiff's Complaint in its entirety and on the merits;
- B. Awarding JPMCB its costs of defending this action, including reasonable attorneys' fees, costs and disbursements; and
- C. Awarding to JPMCB such other and further relief as this Court may deem just and proper.
