MOTION FOR ENTRY OF ORDER APPROVING
AGREEMENT RESOLVING, AMONG OTHER THINGS, PROOFS OF CLAIM NOS. 67357, 70191 AND 70842 AND ADVERSARY PROCEEDING NO. 10-05016

TO THE HONORABLE ROBERT E. GERBER,
UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE:

Motors Liquidation Company (f/k/a General Motors Corporation) (“MLC”) and its affiliated debtors, as post-effective date debtors (collectively, the “Debtors”), and the Motors

Liquidation Company GUC Trust (the “GUC Trust”) submit this motion for entry of an order, substantially in the form annexed hereto as Exhibit “A,” approving the agreement, dated June 15, 2011, by and among New United Motor Manufacturing, Inc. (“NUMMI”), the GUC Trust, and MLC (the “Settlement Agreement”),¹ and respectfully represent:

Resolution of the NUMMI Claim, the NUMMI Rejection Damages Claim and the NUMMI Administrative Claim

1. On November 24, 2009, NUMMI timely asserted a claim against MLC, as reflected in proof of claim number 67357, alleging (1) breach of contract; (2) implied breach of contract and similar principles, including “detrimental reliance on express/implied representations,” “implied contractual indemnity,” and “equitable indemnity;” and (3) breach of fiduciary duty (the “NUMMI Claim”). On the basis of these allegations, NUMMI asserted that, as of the Petition Date, it held claims against MLC in the amount of approximately $500 million.

2. On March 31, 2010, NUMMI asserted an additional claim against MLC, as reflected in proof of claim number 70191 (the “NUMMI Rejection Damages Claim”), for any and all damages in connection with executory contracts to which it was party, that were rejected by the Debtors pursuant to the March 2, 2010 Order Granting Eleventh Omnibus Motion to Reject Executory Contracts (ECF No. 5084).

3. On April 1, 2010, MLC filed an objection to the NUMMI Claim (ECF No. 5404) (the “NUMMI Claim Objection”) arguing that the plain language of the relevant agreements governing the relationship between MLC and NUMMI establish that there is no supportable legal or factual basis for the NUMMI Claim. NUMMI filed a response to MLC’s objection on May 24, 2010 (ECF No. 5854), and MLC filed a reply to NUMMI’s response on

November 4, 2010 (ECF No. 7655). At the November 9, 2010 hearing on MLC's objection to the NUMMI Claim, the Court asked that the parties treat the claims as a plenary litigation and directed NUMMI to re-plead its claim in the style of a complaint.

4. On November 24, 2010, NUMMI filed a complaint asserting claims for breach of contract and promissory estoppel (the "Complaint") and thereby commenced Adversary Proceeding Case No. 10-05016 against MLC (the "Adversary Proceeding"). The Debtors filed a motion to dismiss the Adversary Proceeding on December 23, 2010; NUMMI filed an opposition brief on January 18, 2011; and the Debtors submitted a reply on February 1, 2011. Following oral argument on February 9, 2011, the Bankruptcy Court took the matter under submission.

5. On February 9, 2011, NUMMI asserted an administrative claim against MLC, as reflected in administrative proof of claim number 70842, for "all liabilities of the Debtors to NUMMI relating to or arising from events occurring subsequent to the [Commencement] Date, whether asserted by NUMMI in the Complaint, arising or related to the Adversary Proceeding, or otherwise." (the "NUMMI Administrative Claim", and together with the NUMMI Claim and the NUMMI Rejection Damages Claim, the "NUMMI Proofs of Claim") (NUMMI Administrative Claim at ¶ 6). NUMMI alleged that its administrative expense claim was contingent and in an unliquidated amount.

6. On March 29, 2011, the Bankruptcy Court entered its Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, and Order Pursuant to Sections 1129(b) and (b) of the Bankruptcy Code and Rule 3020 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure Confirming Debtors' Second Amended Joint Chapter 11 Plan (ECF No. 9941) (the "Confirmation Order"), which among other things, confirmed the Debtors' Second Amended Joint Chapter 11 Plan (the "Plan").

Section 7.1(c) of the Plan provides, in relevant part, that the Debtors or the GUC Trust “may compromise, settle, or otherwise resolve any Disputed Claim without approval of the Bankruptcy Court.”

7. On June 15, 2011, after negotiations between MLC and NUMMI regarding the NUMMI Proofs of Claim and related litigation, the parties entered into the Settlement Agreement, a copy of which is annexed hereto as Exhibit “B.”² Pursuant to the Settlement Agreement, subject to the Court Order approving the Settlement Agreement becoming Final and on the Court Approval Date (as those terms are defined in the Settlement Agreement): (i) the NUMMI Claim shall be treated as a single Class 3, Allowed General Unsecured Claim against MLC in the amount of $25,000,000.00 and shall be entitled to treatment as provided in the Plan and Confirmation Order; (ii) the NUMMI Administrative Claim and the NUMMI Rejection Damages Claim shall be deemed withdrawn with prejudice; (iii) no later than ten business days after the Court Approval Date, NUMMI shall voluntarily dismiss the Adversary Proceeding with prejudice; and (iv) NUMMI and MLC shall release each other and, in their capacities as such, their respective agents, directors, officers, consultants, insurers, representatives, administrators, executors, trustees, attorneys, successors and assigns from any and all manner of claims. The releases do not extend to New GM or Toyota Motor Corporation. No other claims or amounts are sought or asserted by NUMMI against the Debtors under the Settlement Agreement. The Settlement Agreement nevertheless provides that MLC shall retain its 50% equity interest in NUMMI, including, without limitation, MLC’s right to a distribution, if any, of assets pursuant to that certain Shareholders’ Agreement by and among MLC, Toyota Motor Corporation, and NUMMI, dated February 21, 1984.

² The Settlement Agreement shall control the parties’ respective rights and obligations, not the summary or descriptions contained in this Motion.

8. Bankruptcy Court approval of the Settlement Agreement is requested for two reasons. First, although the Plan provides that claims such as those asserted in the NUMMI Proofs of Claim can be settled by the GUC Trust without further order of the Court, the Settlement Agreement provides that its terms are not binding until, and conditions a number of provisions on, the entry of an order approving the Settlement Agreement by the Bankruptcy Court. Second, because the Debtors' pending motion to dismiss the Adversary Proceeding remains under consideration by the Bankruptcy Court, the Debtors and the GUC Trust submit this Motion to apprise the Court of the parties' resolution of the subject matter of that dispute.

Conclusion

WHEREFORE the GUC Trust respectfully requests entry of an order granting the relief requested herein and such other and further relief as is just.

This Agreement Resolving Proof of Claim Nos. 67357, 70191 and 70842 and Adversary Proceeding No. 10-05016 (the "Agreement") is entered into as of June 15, 2011, (the "Effective Date") by and among New United Motor Manufacturing, Inc. ("NUMMI"), the Motors Liquidation Company GUC Trust (the "GUC Trust"), and Motors Liquidation Company f/k/a General Motors Corporation ("MLC") (each a "Party" and collectively the "Parties").

WHEREAS, NUMMI is an automobile manufacturer and privately held California corporation formed in 1983 as a California corporation in which both the Toyota Motor Corporation ("Toyota") and MLC own a fifty percent (50%) interest.

WHEREAS, on or about June 1, 2009 (the "Petition Date"), MLC and certain affiliates (collectively, the "Debtors") filed voluntary petitions for relief (the "Chapter 11 Cases") pursuant to title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code"), which are jointly administered in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York (the "Bankruptcy Court" and "Court").

WHEREAS, concurrently with their filing for relief under the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors filed a motion pursuant to, among other provisions, Section 363 and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, seeking authority to sell (the "363 Transaction") substantially all of their assets to Vehicle Acquisition Holdings LLC, a Delaware limited liability company ("VAH") formed by the United States Department of the Treasury.

WHEREAS, on or about March 18, 2011, the Debtors filed the Debtors’ Second Amended Joint Chapter 11 Plan (the “Plan”). [Docket No. 9836].

WHEREAS, the Plan and Confirmation Order provided for the creation and implementation of the GUC Trust and authorized the GUC Trust Administrator, among other things, to make distributions to allowed general unsecured claims and to prosecute and resolve objections to disputed general unsecured claims, subject to any applicable consent from MLC.

WHEREAS, after good-faith, arms' length negotiations, the Parties have reached an agreement to resolve all issues between them, including the issues raised by the NUMMI Claim, the NUMMI Adversary Complaint, the NUMMI Rejection Damages Claim and the NUMMI Administrative Claim.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the representations, acknowledgments, promises and covenants contained herein, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged and confessed, NUMMI, the GUC Trust, and MLC hereby voluntarily, intentionally and upon the advice and guidance of counsel, execute this Agreement and agree, as follows:

1. The Parties will jointly seek final approval of this Agreement by the Court. In particular, promptly after execution of this Agreement by all Parties, the Debtors shall file a motion seeking Court approval of the Agreement (the "Motion"). The Motion will confirm that, under the terms of this Agreement, NUMMI will receive only the Total Allowed Unsecured Claim (defined below).

2. This Agreement is subject to and shall be binding on the Parties only upon Court Approval. "Court Approval" shall mean the entry by the Court in In re Motors Liquidation Company et al., Chapter 11 Case No. 09-50026 (REG), after notice, of an order approving this Agreement, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit "A" (the "Court Order"). "Court Approval Date" shall mean the date upon which the Court Order becomes Final (as defined below). In the event Court Approval is not granted or similar relief is not otherwise provided by the Court or in the event that the Court Approval Date does not occur, this Agreement shall be deemed to be null and void and no Party shall have any obligations to another Party arising out of this Agreement, save and except for the obligations and/or provisions set forth in Paragraphs 9, 10, 12, 15, 16, and 17 hereof, which provisions are intended to survive the expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement. "Final" shall mean that the Court Order has been entered by the Court, and (i) the time to appeal or petition for certiorari has expired and no timely appeal or petition for certiorari shall then be pending, or (ii) if a timely appeal or writ of certiorari thereof has been sought, that the Court Order shall have been affirmed by the highest court to which such Court Order was appealed, or certiorari shall have been denied or reargument or rehearing on remand shall have been denied or resulted in no material modification of such Court Order, and the time to take any further appeal, petition for certiorari, or move for modification of such Court Order, or move for reargument or rehearing, or move for a new trial or to amend the judgment under Rule 59 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, or any analogous rule under the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules") or other rules governing procedure in cases before the Court shall have expired; provided, however, that the possibility that a motion under Rule 60 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, or any analogous rule under the Bankruptcy Rules or other rules governing procedure in cases before the Court, may be filed with respect to such Court Order shall not cause such Court Order not to be Final.

3. Subject to the Court Order becoming Final, and effective upon the Court Approval Date, the NUMMI Claim shall be treated, in the aggregate, as a single Class 3, Allowed General Unsecured Claim by NUMMI against MLC in the amount of $25,000,000.00 (the "Total Allowed Unsecured Claim") and shall be entitled to treatment as provided in the Plan and Confirmation Order.

4. Subject to the Court Order becoming Final, and effective upon the Court Approval Date, the Parties agree that the NUMMI Claim shall be superseded and replaced by the Total Allowed Unsecured Claim and the claims register may be so modified without further order of the Court.

5. Subject to the Court Order becoming Final, and effective upon the Court Approval Date, the NUMMI Rejection Damages Claim shall be deemed withdrawn with prejudice and the claims register may be so modified without further order of the Court.

6. Subject to the Court Order becoming Final, and effective upon the Court Approval Date, the NUMMI Administrative Claim shall be deemed withdrawn with prejudice and the claims register may be so modified without further order of the Court.

7. Subject to the Court Order becoming Final, and no later than 10 business days after the Court Approval Date, NUMMI shall file with the Court a notice of voluntary dismissal pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 7041 dismissing the NUMMI Adversary Proceeding with prejudice.

8. Subject to the Court Order becoming Final, and effective upon the Court Approval Date, and unless otherwise set forth herein, NUMMI and, in their capacities as such, its agents, directors, officers, consultants, insurers, representatives, administrators, executors, trustees, attorneys, successors and assigns (collectively, the “NUMMI Parties”), shall have no further right to payment from the MLC Parties (defined below), and, except as set forth in this Agreement, the NUMMI Parties hereby irrevocably waive any and all claims (as defined in section 101(5) of the Bankruptcy Code), complaints, grievances, liabilities, obligations, promises, agreements, damages, causes of action, rights, debts, demands, controversies, costs, losses, and expenses (including attorneys’ fees and expenses), including but not limited to claims under any municipal, local, state, or federal law, common or statutory, whether known or unknown, against any of the MLC Parties and their respective heirs, representatives, successors, and assigns, and the NUMMI Parties are hereby barred from asserting any and all such claims, whether known or “Unknown Claims” (defined below), presently existing, whether or not asserted, and whether found in fact or law or in equity, in existence as of the execution of this Agreement by NUMMI (the “NUMMI Claims”). Nothing herein shall be construed as a release or waiver of any Party’s rights or obligations under this Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing herein shall be construed as a release or waiver of New GM and/or Toyota.

Subject to the Court Order becoming Final, and effective upon the Court Approval Date, and unless otherwise set forth herein, MLC and, in their capacities as such, its agents, directors, officers, consultants, insurers, representatives, administrators, executors, trustees, attorneys, successors and assigns (collectively, the “MLC Parties”), shall have no further right to payment from the NUMMI Parties, and, except as set forth in this Agreement, the MLC Parties hereby irrevocably waive any and all claims (as defined in section 101(5) of the Bankruptcy Code), complaints, grievances, liabilities, obligations, promises, agreements, damages, causes of action, rights, debts, demands, controversies, costs, losses, and expenses (including attorneys’ fees and expenses), including but not limited to claims under any municipal, local, state, or federal law, common or statutory, whether known or unknown, against any of the NUMMI Parties and their respective heirs, representatives, successors, and assigns, and the MLC Parties are hereby barred from asserting any and all such claims, whether known or “Unknown Claims” (defined below), presently existing, whether or not asserted, and whether found in fact or law or in equity, in existence as of the execution of this Agreement by MLC (the “MLC Claims”) (the MLC Claims together with the NUMMI Claims, collectively, the “Settled Claims”), except as provided in Paragraph 9 herein. Nothing herein shall be construed as a release or waiver of any Party’s rights or obligations under this Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing herein shall be construed as a release or waiver of New GM and/or Toyota.

9. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein (including the release in paragraph 8), MLC shall retain its 50% interest in NUMMI, including, without limitation, its right to a distribution, if any, of assets pursuant to Section 8.2 of that certain Shareholders’ Agreement by and among Toyota, MLC, and NUMMI and dated February 21, 1984.

10. Nothing in this Agreement shall have any affect on the claims, rights or defenses of the Debtors or Toyota with respect to the adversary proceeding captioned Toyota Motor Corporation v. Motors Liquidation Company, Adv. Pro. Case No. 10-05015.

11. The Parties fully understand that the facts upon which the Agreement is based may hereafter be other than or different from facts now believed by either Party to be true, expressly accept and assume the risks of such possible differences in facts, and agree that this Agreement shall remain effective notwithstanding any such differences in facts. For purposes of this Agreement, “Unknown Claims” means any and all Settled Claims that the Parties do not know or suspect to exist in their favor upon the Effective Date, which if known by them, might have affected their decision with respect to the Agreement. With respect to any and all Settled Claims, the Parties stipulate and agree that they shall be deemed to have, and by operation of law shall have, waived any and all provisions, rights, and benefits conferred by any law, rules, or regulations of any state or territory of the United States or any other country, or principle of common or civil law, which is similar, comparable, or equivalent to California Civil Code § 1542, which provides:

A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS WHICH THE CREDITOR DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE, WHICH IF KNOWN BY HIM MUST HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR.

The Parties may hereafter discover facts in addition to or different from those which they now know or believe to be true with respect to the subject matter of the Settled Claims, but the Parties shall expressly have, and by operation of law shall have, fully, finally, and forever settled and released any and all Settled Claims and Unknown Claims, known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, contingent or non-contingent, whether or not concealed or hidden, which now exist, or heretofore have existed, upon any theory of law or equity now existing or coming into existence in the future, without regard to the subsequent discovery or existence of such different or additional facts. The Parties acknowledge, and the Parties shall be deemed by operation of law to have acknowledged, that the foregoing waiver was separately bargained for and a material element of the settlement of which this release is a part.

12. By executing this Agreement, the Parties acknowledge that they (a) are not relying upon any statements, understandings, representations, expectations, or agreements other than those expressly set forth in this Agreement; (b) have made their own investigation of the facts and are relying solely upon their own knowledge and the advice of their own legal counsel; (c) knowingly waive any claim that this Agreement was induced by any misrepresentation or nondisclosure and any right to rescind or avoid this Agreement based upon presently existing facts, known or unknown; and (d) are entering into this Agreement voluntarily, of their own free will, and without any coercion, undue influence, threat, or intimidation of any kind or type whatsoever. The Parties stipulate that each Party is relying upon these representations and warranties in entering into this Agreement. The representations and warranties contained in this Paragraph 12 shall survive the execution of this Agreement indefinitely.

13. By entering into this Agreement, the Parties do not admit, and specifically deny, any violation of any contract, municipal, local, state, or federal law, common or statutory. Neither the execution of this Agreement nor compliance with its terms, nor the consideration provided for herein shall constitute or be construed as an admission by any Party (or any Party's agents, representatives, attorneys, or employers) of any fault, wrongdoing, or liability whatsoever, and the Parties acknowledge that all such liability is expressly denied by the Parties. This Agreement has been entered into in release and compromise of claims as stated herein and to avoid the expense and burden of litigation.

14. As a condition precedent to any obligations or liabilities of the Parties, the Parties expressly represent and warrant that (a) they are the lawful owners of certain of the claims and the potential claims released in this Agreement and release; (b) they have full capacity and authority to settle, compromise, and release the Settled Claims and potential claims and to enter into this Agreement; (c) no other person or entity has acquired or has been assigned, or will in the future acquire or have any right to assert, against any of the Parties any portion of the Settled Claims or any other potential claims released in this Agreement; and (d) they know of no other person or entity that intends to assert a claim by, through, under, or on behalf of any of the Parties. The representations and warranties contained in this Paragraph 14 shall survive the execution of this Agreement indefinitely.

15. This Agreement contains the entire agreement between the Parties as to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior agreements and undertakings between the Parties relating thereto. No Party has relied upon any representation, promise, assurance, covenant, omission or agreement not included in the terms hereof in making the decision to enter into this Agreement.

16. This Agreement may not be modified other than by signed writing executed by the Parties or by order of the Court.

17. Each person who executes this Agreement represents that he or she is duly authorized to do so on behalf of the respective Parties hereto and that each such party has full knowledge of and has consented to this Agreement.

18. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original but all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument, and it shall constitute sufficient proof of this Agreement to present any copy, copies, or facsimiles signed by the Parties hereto.

19. This Agreement shall be exclusively governed by and construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of California, without regard to conflicts of law principles thereof. The Court shall retain exclusive jurisdiction over any and all disputes arising out of or otherwise relating to this Agreement.

20. Each Party understands, agrees, and acknowledges that all of the Parties shall be deemed to be the drafters of this Agreement and any ambiguity in or dispute regarding the interpretation of this Agreement shall not be resolved by any rule of interpretation providing for interpretation against the party that causes the uncertainty to exist or against any party as the drafter.

21. The Parties hereto shall bear their own respective costs, expenses, and attorney's fees incurred in connection with the Actions, the claims and disputes that are the subject of this Agreement, and in connection with the negotiation, preparation, execution, and performance of this Agreement. If any action or motion is brought to enforce or construe the terms of this Agreement, the party prevailing in that action shall be entitled to recover from the party not prevailing all of its/their reasonable costs, expenses, and attorneys fees incurred in that action or motion.

22. This Agreement shall be binding upon the Parties hereto and their respective heirs, representatives, successors, and assigns.

23. Except for express beneficiaries of this Agreement, no third party to this Agreement shall be entitled to enforce any provision hereof, nor may any third party hereto be entitled to rely upon any representation, warranty, covenant, acknowledgement or any other provision hereof.

24. The Parties agree that the Court Order shall provide that, notwithstanding entry of the Court Order, the Court shall retain continuing jurisdiction over the Parties to further effectuate its Court Order and the terms of this Agreement.

25. If notice need be given to the Parties for the purposes of this Agreement, any performance thereunder, or any motions or orders related to the Agreement, under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the Bankruptcy Rules, or otherwise, notice shall be transmitted as follows:
