In support of this objection, Sonic states as follows:

Background

1. The Affected Sonic Dealerships are all direct or indirect subsidiaries of Sonic, a Charlotte, North Carolina based company which (through its subsidiaries) owns car dealerships throughout the United States.

2. Each of the Affected Sonic Dealerships is party to a Dealer Sales and Service Agreement and various other agreements with the Debtors related to the operation of their respective dealerships.

Assumption and Assignment of the Dealership Agreements

3. Each of the Affected Sonic Dealerships received, signed, and returned in a timely manner the “Participation Agreement” and the amendment thereto which were sent by the Debtors to those dealers whose agreements are to be assumed and assigned to the Purchaser. Therefore, each of the Affected Sonic Dealerships believes that its agreements with the Debtors are Assumable Executory Contracts.

4. Some of the Affected Sonic Dealerships have received a Notice of (I) Debtors’ Intent to Assume and Assign Certain Executory Contracts, Unexpired Leases of Personal Property, and Unexpired Leases of Nonresidential Real Property and (II) Cure Amounts Related Thereto (the “Notice”). The Affected Sonic Dealerships that have not received the Notice believe they are intended recipients of the Notice and have not received it due to administrative oversight or a delay in delivery.

5. For those Affected Sonic Dealerships that have received the Notice and the accompanying user ID and password, the Contract Website shows only the name of the dealer, and states that one contract will be assumed. However, the Contract Website does not show the Debtors’ proposed cure amounts for such contracts.

6. The Affected Sonic Dealerships that have not received the Notice are unable to determine the proposed Cure Amount for their contracts, because they do not have the user ID and password required to access the Contract Website.

7. As of June 9, 2009, the amounts due and owing to the Affected Sonic Dealerships under the Assumable Sonic Dealership Contracts were as follows:

8. In accordance with 11 U.S.C. § 365(b)(1), the Debtors must pay the amounts specified in paragraph 7 (plus any other amounts which may be due and owing under the Assumable Sonic Dealership Contracts as of the effective date of the assumption) in connection with any assumption and assignment of the Assumable Sonic Dealership Contracts.

WHEREFORE, the Affected Sonic Dealerships respectfully request that the Court enter an Order:

A. requiring the Debtors to pay the Cure Amounts specified in paragraph 7 above, plus any other amounts which may be due and owing under the Assumable Sonic Dealership

Contracts as of the effective date of the assumption, in connection with the assumption and assignment of the Assumable Sonic Dealership Contracts; and

B. granting such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

DATED this 15th day of June, 2009.
