MOTION PURSUANT TO 11 U.S.C. § 107(B) AND FED. R. BANKR. P. 9018 FOR AN ORDER AUTHORIZING FILING UNDER SEAL THE OPENING BRIEF ON IMPUTATION ISSUE ON BEHALF OF THE IGNITION SWITCH PLAINTIFFS, THE NON-IGNITION SWITCH PLAINTIFFS, THE STATE OF ARIZONA, THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA, THE POST-CLOSING IGNITION SWITCH ACCIDENT PLAINTIFFS AND THE ADAMS PLAINTIFFS, AND THE EXHIBITS THERETO

The Ignition Switch Plaintiffs, certain Non-Ignition Switch Plaintiffs, the State of Arizona ex. rel. Mark Brnovich, the Attorney General, the People of the State of California, by and through Orange County District Attorney Tony Rackauckas, the Post-Closing Ignition Switch Accident Plaintiffs and the Adams Plaintiffs (collectively, “Plaintiffs”), hereby move this Court pursuant to Section 107(b) of Title 11 of the United States Code (as amended, the “Bankruptcy Code”) and Rule 9018 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”) for an order authorizing filing under seal the Opening Brief on Imputation Issues on Behalf of the Ignition Switch Plaintiffs, the Non-Ignition Switch Plaintiffs, the State of Arizona, the People of the State of California, the Post-Closing Ignition Switch Accident Plaintiffs and the Adams Plaintiffs (the “Imputation Brief”) and the exhibits thereto (the “Subject Materials”) that Plaintiffs are filing today, September 18, 2015 (the “Motion”).¹

While, as set forth herein, Plaintiffs seek to file the Subject Materials under seal because they are required to do so under the Protective Order entered by Judge Furman in In re General Motors LLC Ignition Switch Litigation, 14-MD-2543 (JMF) (S.D.N.Y.) (the “Ignition Switch MDL”), in the event that any part of the Subject Materials remains under seal, Plaintiffs plan to file a redacted version of the Subject Materials that will appear on the Court’s public docket.

In support of this motion, Plaintiffs state as follows:

I. BACKGROUND

1. Under ¶ 2 of this Court’s Scheduling Order Regarding Case Management Order Re: No-Strike, No Stay, Objection and GUC Trust Asset Pleading dated September 3, 2015 [ECF No. 13416], Plaintiffs are filing their Imputation Brief today, September 18, 2015.

¹ Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein shall have the meaning set forth in the Imputation Brief.

2. In support of their arguments in the Imputation Brief, Plaintiffs quote and attach excerpts from the depositions of certain current and former New GM employees that have been designated as “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential” pursuant to the Protective Order (attached hereto as Exhibit B) entered by Judge Furman in the Ignition Switch MDL on September 10, 2014 (the “MDL Protective Order”).

II. RELIEF REQUESTED

3. By this motion, Plaintiffs seek entry of an order, in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A, authorizing them to file the Subject Materials under seal in accordance with section 107(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and directing that the Subject Materials shall remain under seal and confidential pending further order of the Court. As discussed herein, in the event that a further order directing the unsealing of the Subject Materials is not issued, Plaintiffs intend to promptly file a redacted version of the Subject Materials on the Court’s public docket.

III. BASIS FOR RELIEF

4. Plaintiffs seek to initially file the Subject Materials under seal because they include quotations to and excerpts from discovery that was designated as “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential” in the Ignition Switch MDL pursuant to the MDL Protective Order.

5. The MDL Protective Order states, in relevant part, that “[a]ny Party wishing to file a document or paper containing Confidential or Highly Confidential Information may request by motion that such Information be filed under seal.”

6. While Plaintiffs do not believe that any of the information in the Subject Materials should be considered either “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential,” under the Protective Order Plaintiffs are required to initially file the Subject Materials under seal.

7. Accordingly, Plaintiffs request an order permitting them to file an unredacted version of the Subject Materials under seal, and a redacted version of the Subject Materials on the Court's public docket.

8. Pursuant to Section 107(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Court may authorize Plaintiffs to file the Subject Materials under seal. Section 107(b) states in relevant part:

On request of a party in interest, the bankruptcy court shall, and on the bankruptcy court's own motion, the bankruptcy court may—

(1) protect an entity with respect to a trade secret or confidential research, development or commercial information;

11 U.S.C. § 107(b).

9. Bankruptcy Rule 9018 sets forth the procedure by which a party in interest may obtain a protective order authorizing the filing of a document under seal. Bankruptcy Rule 9018 states in relevant part:

On motion or on its own initiative, with or without notice, the court may make any order which justice requires (1) to protect the estate or entity in respect of a trade secret or confidential research, development, or commercial information

Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9018.

IV. NOTICE

10. Notice of this Motion has been provided in accordance with the Sixth Amended Order Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 105(a) and Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1015(c) and 9007 Establishing Notice and Case Management Procedures, dated May 5, 2011 [ECF No. 10183]. Plaintiffs respectfully submit that no further notice need be provided.

V. NO PRIOR REQUEST

11. No prior application for the relief requested herein has been made to this or any other court.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs respectfully request entry of an order, in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A, authorizing Plaintiffs to file an unredacted version of the Subject Materials under seal, limiting the parties who have access to this document,² authorizing Plaintiffs to file a redacted version on the Court's public docket, and granting such other and further relief as the Court deems appropriate.

ORDER NO. 10

JESSE M. FURMAN, United States District Judge:

[Protecting Confidentiality and Privileged Materials]

Defendants and Lead Counsel for the Multidistrict Litigation (“MDL”) 2543 Plaintiffs having consented thereto, and for good cause shown,

WHEREAS, the Court has advised all Parties that there is a presumption in favor of public access, particularly in a case of this nature, and that unless the Court determines — based on a written application — that there is a reason justifying something be filed in redacted form or under seal, any filings are public and publicly available to the press and the public alike; and

WHEREAS, it is the Court’s sole province to authorize a pleading and/or document to be filed under seal; the Court grants this protective order recognizing that Defendants intend to include “blanket confidential designations” so as to immediately provide bulk production of millions of pages of documents. Plaintiffs will be allowed to challenge any specific document designation as discovery proceeds within the framework of this Order;

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the documents and other information, including the substance and content thereof, designated by any party as confidential and proprietary, and produced by that party in response to any formal or informal request for discovery in any of the cases consolidated in the above-captioned MDL 2543, shall be subject to the terms of this Consent Protective Order (“Protective Order” or “Order”), as set forth below:

The purpose of this Order is to expedite the flow of discovery material, facilitate the prompt resolution of disputes over confidentiality and privilege, and protect material to be kept confidential or privileged, pursuant to the Court's inherent authority, its authority under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c) and Federal Rule of Evidence 502(d), and the judicial opinions interpreting such Rules.

I. CONFIDENTIALITY.

1. Information. "Information" includes the contents of documents and other data, any data and information associated with documents (whether physical or in electronic format), oral and written testimony, answers to interrogatories, admissions, and data and information derived from objects other than documents, produced or disclosed in these proceedings by any party to the above-captioned litigation or by any third party (the "Producing Party") to any other party or parties, subject to the provisions in Paragraphs 5 and 6 of this Order (the "Receiving Party").

2. Confidentiality Designations. This Order covers Information that the Producing Party designates "Confidential" or "Highly Confidential." Information may be designated as Confidential when (i) the Producing Party reasonably believes that the Information constitutes, reflects, discloses or contains Information subject to protection under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c) or other confidential, non-public information, or (ii) the Producing Party reasonably believes that the documents or information includes material protected by federal, state, or foreign data protection laws or other privacy obligations, including (but not limited to) consumer and third-party names, such as the first and last names of persons involved in an accident or of other individuals not directly involved in an accident but included in documents related to an accident; Social Security Numbers; health information relating to the past, present or future physical or mental health or condition of an individual; the provision of health care to an individual, or the past, present or future payment for the provision of health care to an individual; driver's license or other identification numbers; personal financial information such as tax information, bank account numbers, and credit card numbers; insurance claim numbers; insurance policy numbers; VIN numbers; or the personal email addresses or other contact information of GM board members and employees ("Personal Information"). Information may be designated as Highly Confidential when: (i) the Producing Party reasonably believes that the documents or information contain competitively sensitive information regarding future product designs or strategies, commercial or financial information, or other sensitive information, the disclosure of which to third party competitors may result in commercial harm; or (ii) the Producing Party reasonably believes that the documents or information includes Personal Information. Subject to provisions of Paragraph 3(b), the parties shall make Confidential and Highly Confidential designations in good faith to ensure that only those documents that merit Confidential or Highly Confidential treatments are so designated.

3. Procedure for Confidentiality Designations.

(a) Designation. To designate Information as Confidential or Highly Confidential, a Producing Party must mark it or identify it on the record as such. Either designation may be withdrawn by the Producing Party.

(b) Bulk Designation. To expedite production of potentially voluminous materials — such as the productions referenced in Paragraph 11(d) — a Producing Party may, but is not required to, produce materials without a detailed confidentiality review, subject to the "clawback" procedures in Paragraphs 3(f) and 10 of this Order or as otherwise agreed to. In so doing, the Producing Party may designate those collections of documents that by their nature contain "Confidential" or "Highly Confidential"

Information with the appropriate designation notwithstanding that some of the documents within the collection may not qualify for such designation. The materials that may be so designated shall be limited to the types or categories of documents that the Producing Party reasonably believes may contain Highly Confidential Information, as defined in Paragraph 2 of this Order. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a Receiving Party may at any time challenge the designation of one or more particular documents as Confidential or Highly Confidential on the grounds that it does not or they do not qualify for such protection. If the Producing Party agrees, it must promptly notify all Receiving Parties that it is withdrawing or changing the designation.

(c) Marking. All or any part of a document, tangible object, discovery response, or pleading disclosed, produced, or filed by a Producing Party may be designated Confidential or Highly Confidential by marking the appropriate legend (“CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL”) on the face of the document and each page so designated. With respect to tangible items or electronically stored Information produced in native format, the appropriate legend shall be marked on the face of the tangible item or media containing electronically stored Information, if practicable, or by written notice to the Receiving Party at the time of disclosure, production or filing that such tangible item or media is Confidential or Highly Confidential or contains such Information.

(d) Redaction. Any Producing Party may redact from the documents and things it produces any Highly Confidential Information, as defined in Paragraph 2, or any matter that the Producing Party claims is subject to attorney-client privilege, work-product protection, a legal prohibition against disclosure, or any other privilege or immunity. The Producing Party shall mark each thing where matter has been redacted with a legend stating “REDACTED,” “CBI,” “PRIVACY,” “PII,” “NON-RESPONSIVE,” “PRIVILEGED,” or a comparable notice. Where a document consists of more than one page, each page on which Information has been redacted shall be so marked. The Producing Party shall preserve an unredacted version of each such document. The process for challenging the designation of redactions shall be the same as the process for challenging the designation of Confidential Material and Highly Confidential Material set forth in Paragraph 6. If counsel for the Producing Party agrees that Information initially redacted shall not be subject to redaction or shall receive alternative treatment, or if the Court orders that those materials shall not be subject to redaction or shall receive alternative treatment, and the Information is subsequently produced in unredacted form, then that unredacted Information shall bear the legend “Highly Confidential” and shall continue to receive the protections and treatment afforded to documents bearing the Highly Confidential designation.

(e) Timing. Subject to the provisions of Paragraphs 3(f) and 10, documents and other objects must be designated as Confidential or Highly Confidential, and redactions must be applied to Highly Confidential Information, before disclosure. In the event that a Producing Party designates some or all of a witness’s deposition testimony as Confidential or Highly Confidential, the specific page and line designations over which confidentiality is claimed must be provided to the Receiving Party within thirty (30) days of receipt of the final transcript, provided, however, that the Receiving Party will consider reasonable requests for an extension of the deadline. Deposition testimony shall be treated as Highly Confidential pending the deadline.

(f) Errors. Disclosure of Confidential or Highly Confidential Information does not waive the confidential status of such Information. In the event that Confidential or Highly Confidential Information is disclosed without a marking or designation of it as such, the Producing Party may thereafter assert a claim or designation of confidentiality, and promptly provide replacement media. Thereafter, the Receiving Party must immediately return the original Confidential or Highly Confidential Information and all copies of the same to the Producing Party and make no use of such Information.

4. Challenges to Confidentiality Designations. Any party may object to the propriety of the designation of specific material as Confidential or Highly Confidential by serving a written objection upon the Producing Party's counsel. The Producing Party or its counsel shall thereafter, within ten calendar days, respond to such objection in writing by either: (i) agreeing to remove the designation; or (ii) stating the reasons for such designation. If the objecting party and the Producing Party are subsequently unable to agree upon the terms and conditions of disclosure for the material(s) in issue, the objecting party may move the Court for an order withdrawing the designation as to the specific designation on which the Parties could not agree. Counsel may agree to a reasonable extension of the ten-day period, if necessary. On such a motion, the Producing Party shall have the burden of proving that "good cause" exists for the designation at issue and that the material is entitled to protection as Confidential or Highly Confidential Information under applicable law. In the event a motion is filed by the objecting party, the Information at issue shall continue to be treated in the manner as designated by the Producing Party until the Court orders otherwise. A Receiving Party does not waive its right to challenge a Confidential or Highly Confidential designation by electing not to raise a challenge promptly after the original designation is disclosed and may challenge a designation at such time as the Receiving Party deems appropriate. Each party shall bear its own fees and costs related to any challenges of confidentiality designations under this Protective Order.

5. Access to Confidential Information. The Receiving Party may share Confidential Information with only the following persons and entities related to each of the cases consolidated in the above-captioned MDL 2543:

- (a) The Court and its staff;
- (b) Parties to any of the actions consolidated in the above-captioned MDL 2543;
- (c) Parties' counsel;
- (d) Counsel (and their staff) for parties to any of the federal or state court actions alleging injuries related to the ignition switch and/or other parts in vehicles recalled by General Motors LLC that are the subject of MDL 2543 ("Related Litigation"), provided that (i) the proposed recipient agrees to be bound by this Order and signs the certificate attached hereto as Appendix A; (ii) the proposed recipient agrees to be bound by any discovery-related or protective Orders, including Federal Rule of Evidence 502(d) Orders, that may be entered in MDL 2543; (iii) counsel for the party that supplies the Confidential Information to such recipient maintains copies of the certificates and a log identifying each such recipient; and (iv) upon a showing by a party that Confidential Information has been used in violation of this Order, counsel shall provide copies of the log and certificate to the Court for in camera review;
- (e) Court reporters (including audio and video), interpreters, translators, copy services, graphic support services, document imaging services, and database or coding services retained by counsel, provided that these individuals or an appropriate company official with authority to do so on behalf of the company executes a certification attached hereto as Appendix A;

(f) Special masters;

(g) Mediators;

(h) The direct staff of those identified in Paragraphs 5(c), 5(f), and 5(g);

(i) Deponents and trial witnesses during a deposition or trial who have a reasonable need to see the Confidential Information in order to provide testimony, provided such witness executes a certification in the form attached hereto as Appendix A;

(j) Any expert or consultant, and his, her or its staff, hired by a party for litigation purposes who agrees to be bound by this Order and signs the certificate attached hereto as Appendix A; and

(k) Any other person to whom the Producing Party, in writing, authorizes disclosure.

6. Access to Highly Confidential Information. The Receiving Party may share Highly Confidential Information with only the following persons and entities related to each of the cases consolidated in the above-captioned MDL 2543:

(a) The Court and its staff;

(b) Court reporters (including audio and video), interpreters, translators, copy services, graphic support services, document imaging services, and database or coding services retained by counsel, provided that these individuals or an appropriate company official with authority to do so on behalf of the company executes a certification attached hereto as Appendix A;

(c) Mediators and their staff, provided that such persons execute a certification attached hereto as Appendix A;

(d) Co-lead counsel, executive committee members, and liaison counsel in the above-captioned MDL 2543, as well as counsel for parties in Related Litigation, the Receiving Party's external counsel, and a Receiving Party's internal counsel whose primary responsibilities include overseeing litigation in the above-captioned MDL 2543, and their direct staff, provided that (i) the proposed recipient agrees to be bound by this Order and signs the certificate attached hereto as Appendix A; (ii) the proposed recipient agrees to be bound by any discovery-related or protective Orders, including Federal Rule of Evidence 502(d) Orders, that may be entered in MDL 2543; (iii) counsel for the party that supplies the Highly Confidential Information to such recipient maintains copies of the certificates and a log identifying each such recipient; and (iv) upon a showing by a party that Highly Confidential Information has been used in violation of this Order, counsel shall provide copies of the log and certificate to the Court for in camera review;

(e) Persons who prepared, received, or reviewed the Highly Confidential Information prior to its production and who execute a certification in the form attached hereto as Appendix A;

(f) A witness during a hearing, a deposition, or preparation for a deposition who is a current employee of the Party that produced the applicable document(s) or who appears, based upon the document itself or testimony in a deposition, to have specific knowledge of the contents of the documents designated "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL," provided such witness executes a certification in the form attached hereto as Appendix A;

(g) Outside experts, consultants, or other agents retained by a party for litigation purposes, provided such expert, consultant, or agent executes a certification in the form attached hereto as Appendix A; and

(h) Any other person to whom the Producing Party, in writing, authorizes disclosure.

7. Use of Confidential and Highly Confidential Information.

(a) Restricted to This Proceeding and Related Litigation. Confidential Information and Highly Confidential Information must be used only in this proceeding, or in any Related Litigation, except that nothing in this Protective Order shall be construed as limiting any party from disclosing a potential safety defect to an appropriate government agency.

(b) Acknowledgement. Subject to the restrictions contained in Paragraphs 5 and 6, the persons identified in Paragraphs 5 and 6 may receive or review Confidential or Highly Confidential Information. All persons specifically designated in Paragraphs 5 and 6 must execute the certificate attached hereto as Appendix A or affirm on the record that he or she will not disclose Confidential or Highly Confidential Information revealed during a deposition and will keep the transcript confidential.

(c) Filings. All parties shall make reasonable efforts to avoid requesting the filing of Confidential or Highly Confidential Information under seal by, for example, redacting or otherwise excluding from a submission to the Court any such Information not directly pertinent to the submission. Where not reasonably possible, any Party wishing to file a document or paper containing Confidential or Highly Confidential Information may request by motion that such Information be filed under seal.

(d) Hearings. In the event that a Receiving Party intends to utilize Confidential or Highly Confidential Information during a pre-trial hearing, such Receiving Party shall provide written notice no less than five days prior to the hearing, to the Producing Party and to the Court, except that shorter notice may be provided if the Receiving Party could not reasonably anticipate the need to use the document at the hearing five days in advance, in which event notice shall be given immediately upon identification of that need. The use of such Confidential or Highly Confidential Information during the pre-trial hearing shall be determined by agreement of the parties or by Order of the Court.

(e) Trial. The use of Confidential or Highly Confidential Information during the trial shall be determined by Order of the Court.

(f) Subpoena by Other Courts or Agencies. If another court or an administrative agency subpoenas or otherwise orders production of Confidential or Highly Confidential Information that any Party or other person has obtained under the terms of this Order, the Party or other person to whom the subpoena or other process is directed must notify the Producing Party in writing within five days of all of the following: (a) the discovery materials that are requested for production in the subpoena; (b) the date by which compliance with the subpoena is requested; (c) the location at which compliance with the subpoena is requested; (d) the identity of the party serving the subpoena; and (e) the case name, jurisdiction and index, docket, complaint, charge, civil action or other identification number or other designation identifying the litigation, administrative proceeding or other proceeding in which the subpoena or other process has been issued. Confidential or Highly Confidential Information shall not be produced prior to the receipt of written notice by the Producing Party and after a reasonable opportunity to object has been offered. Further, the party or person receiving the subpoena or other process will cooperate with the Producing Party in any proceeding related thereto. The Producing Party will bear the burden and all costs of opposing the subpoena on grounds of confidentiality.

8. Return of Discovery Materials. Within ninety days of the termination of any party from all proceedings in this proceeding, that party, its employees, attorneys, consultants and experts must destroy or return (at the election of the Receiving Party) all originals and/or copies of documents with Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information, provided however, that the obligation to destroy or return such documents that is imposed on counsel, consultants and experts representing multiple parties shall not occur until the last of their represented parties has been terminated from the foregoing referenced proceedings. At the written request of the Producing Party, any person or entity having custody or control of recordings, notes, memoranda, summaries or other written materials, and all copies thereof, related to or containing discovery materials produced by the Producing Party (the "Discovery Materials") shall deliver to the Producing Party an affidavit certifying that reasonable efforts have been made to assure that all Discovery Materials (except for privileged communications, work product and court-filed documents as stated above) have been destroyed or delivered to the Producing Party in accordance with the terms of this Protective Order. A Receiving Party is permitted to retain a list of the documents by Bates Number that are produced by a Producing Party under this Protective Order.

II. PRIVILEGES.

9. No Waiver by Disclosure.

(a) This Order is entered, inter alia, pursuant to Rule 502(d) of the Federal Rules of Evidence. If a Producing Party discloses information in connection with the pending litigation that the Producing Party thereafter claims to be privileged or protected by the attorney-client privilege or attorney work product protection (“Disclosed Protected Information”), the disclosure of the Disclosed Protected Information shall not constitute or be deemed a waiver or forfeiture of any claim of privilege or work product protection that the Producing Party would otherwise be entitled to assert with respect to the Disclosed Protected Information and its subject matter in this proceeding or in any other federal or state proceeding.

(b) A Producing Party may assert in writing attorney-client privilege or work product protection with respect to Disclosed Protected Information. The Receiving Party must—unless it contests the claim of attorney-client privilege or work product protection in accordance with sub-paragraph (c)—within five business days of receipt of that writing, (i) return or destroy all copies of the Disclosed Protected Information, and (ii) provide a certification of counsel that all of the Disclosed Protected Information has been returned or destroyed. Within five business days of receipt of the notification that the Disclosed Protected Information has been returned or destroyed, the Producing Party must produce a privilege log with respect to the Disclosed Protected Information.

(c) If the Receiving Party contests the claim of attorney-client privilege or work product protection, the Receiving Party must — within five business days of receipt of the claim of privilege or protection — move the Court for an Order compelling disclosure of the Disclosed Protected Information (a “Disclosure Motion”). The Receiving Party must seek to file the Disclosure Motion under seal and must not assert as a ground for compelling disclosure the fact or circumstances of the disclosure, and may not disclose, rely on or refer to any of the Disclosed Protected Information. Pending resolution of the Disclosure Motion, the Receiving Party must sequester the Disclosed Protected Information and not use the Disclosed Protected Information or disclose it to any person other than as required by law.

(d) The parties may stipulate to extend the time periods set forth in subparagraphs (ii) and (iii).

(e) Disclosed Protected Information that is sought to be reclaimed by the parties to this case pursuant to this Order shall not be used as grounds by any third party to argue that any waiver of privilege or protection has occurred by virtue of any production in this case.

(f) The Producing Party retains the burden of establishing the privileged or protected nature of the Disclosed Protected Information. Nothing in this paragraph shall limit the right of any party to petition the Court for an in camera review of the Disclosed Protected Information.

10. Receiving Party's Obligation. Nothing in this Order shall relieve counsel for any Receiving Party of any existing duty or obligation, whether established by case law, rule of court, regulation or other source, to return, and not to review, any privileged or work product materials without being requested by the Producing Party to do so. Rather, in the event a Receiving Party becomes aware that it is in possession of what appears to be privileged documents or materials, then counsel for the Receiving Party shall immediately: (i) cease any further review or use of that document or material and (ii) notify the Producing Party of the apparent production of Disclosed Protected Information, requesting whether the documents or materials are Disclosed Protected Information. In the event the Producing Party confirms the documents or material are Disclosed Protected Information, the Receiving Party shall (i) promptly return or destroy all copies of the Disclosed Protected Information in its possession and (ii) take reasonable steps to retrieve all copies of the Disclosed Protected Information distributed to other counsel or non-parties.

11. Privilege Log Production.

(a) Unless otherwise provided in this Order, any document falling within the scope of any request for production or subpoena that is withheld on the basis of a claim of attorney-client privilege, work product, or any other claim of privilege or immunity from discovery is to be identified by the Producing Party on a privilege log, which the Producing Party shall produce in an electronic format that allows text searching. For administrative purposes, an e-mail thread contained within a single document need only be recorded once on the Producing Party's privilege log, even if a privilege is asserted over multiple portions of the thread. Redacted documents need not be logged as long as (a) for emails, the bibliographic information (i.e. to, from, cc, bcc, recipients, date and time) is not redacted, and the reason for the redaction is noted on the face of the document; and (b) for non-email documents, the reason for the redaction is noted on the face of the document. Documents that are redacted shall be identified as such in a "redaction" field in the accompanying data load file.

(b) Privilege log identification is not required for work product created by counsel, or by an agent of counsel other than a party, after January 31, 2014, or for post-January 31, 2014 communications exchanged between or among: (i) the Producing Party and their counsel; (ii) counsel for the Producing Party; (iii) counsel for Plaintiffs; and/or (iv) counsel for Defendants. Privilege log identification is also not required for: (i) communications between a Producing Party and its counsel in proceedings other than MDL 2543; (ii) work product created by a Producing Party's counsel, or by an agent or contractor of counsel other than the Producing Party, in proceedings other than MDL 2543; (iii) internal communications within: (a) a law firm representing a party or (b) a legal department of a party that is a corporation or another organization.

(c) In order to avoid unnecessary cost, the parties are encouraged to identify categories of privileged information that may be logged categorically rather than document-by-document. (See Advisory Committee Note to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(5) (1993).) The parties shall meet and confer on this issue and raise with the Court either: (i) agreements reached with respect to documents that the parties have agreed to log by category, or (ii) proposals for logging other than document-by-document that have been proposed by one or more Producing Parties, but which have not been agreed to by the Receiving Parties. The parties should keep in mind that the Court's intention is to enable the parties to minimize the cost and resources devoted to privilege logging, while enabling the Court and Receiving Party to assess the assertions of privilege made by the Producing Party.

(d) The Defendants, where applicable, will post to the MDL 2543 Document Depository privilege logs relating to (i) the productions made in response to the plaintiffs' requests for production in any Related Litigation (as defined in Paragraph 5(d)) at the same time these logs are due in the Related Litigation; (ii) the productions made in response to the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration's pre-August 22, 2014 requests at the same time these logs are due in Melton v. General Motors LLC, No. 14A-1197-4 (Ga. Cobb Cnty. St.) ("Melton"); and (iii) certain productions made in response to Congressional Committees' pre-August 22, 2014 requests at the same time these logs are due in Melton. Thereafter, a Producing Party shall produce privilege logs no later than thirty (30) days after withholding from production documents pursuant to a claim of privilege, but in any event the Defendants are not required to produce supplemental privilege logs any earlier than sixty (60) days after the initial document production deadline in Melton.

III. MISCELLANEOUS.

12. Violations of the Protective Order by a Receiving Party. In the event that any person or party violates the terms of this Protective Order, the aggrieved Producing Party should apply to the Court to obtain relief against any such person or party violating or threatening to violate any of the terms of this Protective Order. In the event that the aggrieved Producing Party seeks injunctive relief, it must direct the petition for such relief to this Court. To the extent the same document or categories of documents are at issue in both the above-captioned MDL 2543 and in any Related Litigation, the Parties will attempt first to resolve the issue in the MDL and before this Court. The parties and any other person subject to the terms of this Protective Order agree that this Court shall retain jurisdiction over it and them for the purpose of enforcing this Protective Order.

13. Violations of the Protective Order by Disclosure of Personal Information. In the event that any person or party violates the terms of this Protective Order by disclosing Confidential Personal Information or Highly Confidential Information relating to an individual third party, as defined in Paragraph 2 of this Order, or in the event that any person or party breaches the terms of the Protective Order in a manner that requires disclosure to a third party under pertinent privacy laws or otherwise, it shall be the responsibility of the breaching party to contact that third party and to comply with any laws or regulations involving breaches of Personal Information.

14. Protective Order Remains In Force: This Protective Order shall remain in force and effect until modified, superseded, or terminated by order of the Court made upon reasonable written notice. Unless otherwise ordered, or agreed upon by the parties, this Protective Order shall survive the termination of this action. The Court retains jurisdiction even after termination of this action to enforce this Protective Order and to make such amendments, modifications, deletions and additions to this Protective Order as the Court may from time to time deem appropriate.

APPENDIX A TO PROTECTIVE ORDER - AGREEMENT

I hereby certify that I have read the Order Protecting Confidentiality (“Order”) entered in the above-captioned action and that I understand the terms thereof. I agree to be bound by the Order. If I receive documents or information designated as Confidential or Highly Confidential, as those terms are defined in the Order, I understand that such information is provided to me pursuant to the terms and restrictions of the Order. I agree to hold in confidence and not further disclose or use for any purpose, other than as permitted by the Order, any information disclosed to me pursuant to the terms of the Order. I further agree to submit to the jurisdiction of this Court for purposes of enforcing the Order and agree to accept service of process in connection with this action or any proceedings related to enforcement of the Order by certified letter, return receipt requested, at my principal residence, in lieu of personal service or other methods of service.

I understand that these certifications are strictly confidential, that counsel for each party are maintaining the certifications without giving copies to the other side, and that the parties expressly agreed and the Court ordered that except in the event of a violation of this Order, the parties will make no attempt to seek copies of the certifications or to determine the identities of persons signing them. I further understand that if the Court should find that any disclosure is necessary to investigate a violation of this Order, the disclosure will be limited to outside counsel only, and outside counsel shall not disclose any information to their clients that could tend to identify any certification signatory unless and until there is specific evidence that a particular signatory may have violated the Order, in which case limited disclosure may be made with respect to that signatory.
