Update Regarding Potential Mediation with PIWD Plaintiffs

Dear Judge Glenn:

General Motors LLC (“New GM”) writes to advise the Court of additional developments since the July 19, 2018 hearing (the “July 19 Hearing”) concerning the potential mediation of personal injury claims asserted against New GM and/or the GUC Trust.

At the July 19 Hearing, New GM informed the Court that New GM and certain personal injury claimants represented by Goodwin Procter LLP, Hillard Martinez Gonzales L.L.P. and The Law Offices of Thomas J. Henry and Andrews Meyers, P.C. (collectively, the “PIWD Plaintiffs”) had been in active discussions to facilitate the mediation and potential settlement of Pre-Sale personal injury claims. (7/19/2018 Hr’g Tr. 39:23-40:20.) Moreover, New GM had requested the information and documentation supporting the personal injury claims set forth in MDL Order 148. As of the July 19 Hearing, a significant number of PIWD Plaintiffs had agreed to provide such information to New GM, with the remaining PIWD Plaintiffs still reviewing and considering New GM’s information requests. (Id. 40:21-25.)

New GM is pleased to report that all PIWD Plaintiffs who filed late claims as of the July 19 Hearing have agreed to provide the information and documentation requested by New GM.

New GM intends to proceed as expeditiously as possible to voluntarily mediate the claims asserted by the PIWD Plaintiffs as of the July 19 Hearing after the requested information is received and evaluated by New GM.

Respectfully submitted,
