JOINDER OF PLAINTIFF DAVID SZYMANAK IN THE OBJECTIONS OF THE STATES OF CONNECTICUT AND KENTUCKY, THE COMMITTEE OF CONSUMER-VICTIMS OF GENERAL MOTORS CORPORATION AND THE STATES ON THE OMNIBUS OBJECTIONS OF STATES ATTORNEYS GENERAL

TO THE HONORABLE ROBERT E. GERBER,
UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE:

PLAINTIFF DAVID SZYMANAK, through his attorneys Rheingold, Valet, Rheingold, Shkolnik & McCartney LLP (hereinafter the "Plaintiff"), hereby joins in the Objections filed by the States of Connecticut and Kentucky ("CT/KY"), the Ad Hoc Committee of Consumer-Victims of General Motors Corporation ("the CCV") and the Omnibus Objections of the Attorneys General of numerous States ("the States")(as of this filing, the States were: Arkansas, Arizona, Delaware, Georgia, Idaho, Indiana, Kansas, Louisiana, Maine, Maryland, Michigan, Mississippi, Missouri,

U.S. BANKRUPTCY COURT

Montana, New Mexico, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, Utah, Virginia, Washington and West Virginia) to Debtors' Motion Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 105, 363(b), (f), (k), and (m), and 365 and Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2002, 6004, and 6006, to (I) Approve (a) the Sale Pursuant to the Master Sale and Purchase Agreement with Vehicle Acquisition Holdings LLC, a U.S. Treasury-Sponsored Purchaser, Free and Clear of Liens, Claims, Encumbrances, and Other Interests; (b) the Assumption and Assignment of Certain Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases; and (c) Other Relief; and (II) Schedule Sale Approval Hearing (the "Motion") [doc. no. 92] and in support hereof shows:

The Plaintiff has a personal injury action pending against General Motors in the Supreme Court of New York, Broome County, Index No.: 001582/04, arising from a motor vehicle accident in which he suffered severe and permanent injuries. His complaint in that matter alleges that defects in the crashworthiness of the 2001 Chevrolet Blazer, manufactured by General Motors Corporation, in which he was a passenger at the time of the accident, caused his injuries. Plaintiff hereby joins in the Objections made by CT/KY, the CCV and the States and reserves the right to join other objections that are filed.

Plaintiff respectfully submits that certain provisions of the Motion seek relief that is beyond the authority of this Court to order. The Motion seeks to have the proposed Order determine that Vehicle Acquisition Holdings LLC (the so-called "Newco"), a new entity created solely for the purpose of acquiring Debtors' assets, is not a successor or transferee and that no liabilities, such as Plaintiff's if he were to prevail at trial, may be placed on it. The provisions of the proposed Order divest the Plaintiff of substantial legal rights, without any regard for his pending product liability claim, or for state laws that may, when other claim are eventually made, be read to hold otherwise.

The Plaintiff submits that this Court should not enter any order depriving him of his legal right to be compensated for the serious injuries he has suffered that were, upon information and belief, caused by defects in the GM product which is the subject of his lawsuit. Any such order would be unfair, in violation of due process, and inconsistent with the public assertions by the President of the United States and the Debtor that consumers using General Motors products have no cause for concern.

The Plaintiff simply cannot sit idly by while General Motors attempts to wipe out his product liability claim without the jury trial that our laws guarantee him. It is the very essence of our civil justice system that Plaintiff is entitled to his day in court before a jury of his peers and yet, if approved, the proposed Order would unfairly and devastatingly strip him of that right.

Wherefore, the Plaintiff respectfully objects to the approval of the Motion or entry of the proposed Order in their current form and requests that Court grant relief only to the extent consistent with the positions taken in the Objections of CT/KY, the CCV and the States, to which he joins, and asks this Court to consider the Legal Arguments made therein as if fully set forth herein.

Dated: June 19, 2009

Respectfully submitted,

TERRENCE E. McCARTNEY (TEM9831)
